

Exhibit 1

CLASS ACTION SETTLEMENT AGREEMENT

This Class Action Settlement Agreement (“Settlement Agreement” or “Agreement”) is made and entered into by and among the following parties, as hereinafter defined: (1) Alec Faber and Ahnaf Rahman (together, “Plaintiffs” or “Named Plaintiffs”), on behalf of themselves and the Settlement Class, by and through Class Counsel in this Action; and (2) Cornell University (“Cornell”), by and through its attorneys of record in this Action. The Named Plaintiffs and Cornell are each a “Party” and, collectively, the “Parties.”

RECITALS

On April 23, 2020, Olivia Haynie commenced a putative class action against Cornell, entitled Haynie v. Cornell University, Case No. 3:20-CV-0467-MAD-ML, alleging breach of contract, unjust enrichment, and conversion stemming from Cornell’s transition to online learning in response to the COVID-19 pandemic during the Spring 2020 semester, and seeking partial refunds of tuition and certain mandatory fees. See Dkt. No. 1. On April 25, 2020 and May 31, 2020, Named Plaintiffs Alec Faber and Ahnaf Rahman, respectively, filed similar class action complaints against Cornell. See Faber v. Cornell University, No. 3:20-CV-471, Dkt. No. 1 (N.D.N.Y.); Rahman v. Cornell University, No. 3:20-CV-592, Dkt. No. 1 (N.D.N.Y.). On August 18, 2020, Plaintiffs thereafter filed a motion to consolidate these actions. See Dkt. No. 27. The motion to consolidate was granted on October 13, 2020, and Plaintiffs filed an amended consolidated complaint on October 27, 2020. See Dkt. Nos. 32, 33. In the amended consolidated complaint, Emilio Espejo was added as a putative class representative. See Dkt. No. 33. On October 29, 2020, Ms. Haynie voluntarily dismissed her claim. See Dkt. Nos. 36, 37.

On November 10, 2020, Cornell filed a motion to dismiss the amended consolidated complaint. See Dkt. No. 38. After full briefing and oral argument, the Court issued an order on March 3, 2021, dismissing Mr. Espejo, a parent of a student, based on lack of standing. See Dkt. No. 54. Further, the Court denied Cornell's motion to dismiss with regards to Plaintiffs' breach of contract claims relating to tuition and fees, while granting the motion as to Plaintiffs' claims regarding room and board, unjust enrichment, conversion, and violations of the New York General Business Law. See id. Cornell promptly filed a motion for partial reconsideration of this order. See Dkt. No. 57. While the Parties awaited decision on the reconsideration motion, they began exchanging discovery requests and responses.

On August 18, 2021, with the reconsideration motion still pending, the Parties participated in a court-ordered mediation, which was not successful in resolving this case. See Dkt. No. 83. On October 25, 2021, the Court issued an order on the aforementioned motion for reconsideration, dismissing Plaintiffs' first cause of action for breach of contract with respect to the tuition claim, leaving only the breach of contract claim with respect to certain fees to be resolved through litigation. See Dkt. No. 98. After engaging in further discovery, the Parties participated in a second mediation on June 9, 2022, which was also unsuccessful.

Discovery was completed, including depositions of Plaintiff Ahnaf Rahman on August 13, 2022 and Plaintiff Alec Faber on August 26, 2022, as well as multiple Cornell employees in September 2022 pursuant to Rule 30(b)(6), including Cornell's Dean of Students, Associate Dean for Administration and Finance in Student and Campus Life, Director of Finance and Operations in Student and Campus Life, Director of Campus Activities, and Director of Administrative Services in Cornell Health. Cornell disclosed an expert witness, who was deposed by Plaintiffs on October 27, 2022.

On October 4, 2022, Plaintiffs moved to certify a proposed class defined as "[a]ll students who enrolled at Cornell University and paid a Student Health Fee and/or Student Activity Fee for the Spring 2020 semester.” See Dkt. No. 132. Cornell opposed Plaintiffs’ motion. See Dkt. No. 137. While the motion for class certification was fully briefed, but not yet argued or decided, the Parties reinitiated settlement discussions, and reached this class-wide settlement.

On December 9, 2020, the Parties informed the Court that they had reached a settlement in principle, see Dkt. No. 150, and subsequently negotiated the written terms of this Settlement Agreement and its supporting exhibits.

At all times, Cornell has continued to deny all allegations of wrongdoing and has denied and continues to deny that it committed, or attempted to commit, any breach of contract or other wrongful act or violation of law or duty that is, or was prior to motion practice dismissing certain claims, alleged in the Action. Nevertheless, taking into account the uncertainty and risks inherent in litigation generally and the certainty of a negotiated settlement, including the benefits that current and former students will receive therefrom, Cornell considers it desirable to resolve the Action on the terms and conditions stated herein to avoid further expense, burden, and distraction from its educational mission. Therefore, Cornell has determined that resolution on the terms and conditions set forth herein is in the best interests of all members of the Cornell community.

As more fully explained below, neither the Settlement nor any actions taken to carry out the Settlement are intended to be, nor may they be deemed or construed to be, an admission or concession of liability by any person or entity, or of the validity of any claim, defense, or any point of fact or law by any Party. All such liability is expressly denied. Neither the Settlement, nor the fact of settlement, nor settlement proceedings, nor the settlement negotiations, nor any related document, shall be used as an admission of any fault, breach, or omission by Cornell, or be offered or received in evidence as an admission, concession, presumption, or inference of any wrongdoing by Cornell in any action or proceeding.

Although the Parties have agreed that a class may be certified for purposes of the Settlement, such certification shall not be binding or have any legal effect if the Settlement is terminated, if the Settlement is ultimately not approved, or if, through the efforts of an objecting class member, the approval is reversed or modified on appeal. Cornell reserves all of its objections to class certification for litigation purposes and does not consent to certification of the proposed Settlement Class for any purpose other than to effectuate the Settlement.

NOW, THEREFORE, IT IS HEREBY STIPULATED AND AGREED, by and among the Parties, by and through their respective counsel, that subject to final approval of the Court, after a hearing as provided for in the Settlement pursuant to Federal Rule of Civil Procedure 23(e), and in consideration of the benefits flowing to the Parties from the Settlement set forth herein, the Action and the Released Claims shall be fully and finally compromised, settled, and released, and the Action shall be dismissed with prejudice, upon and subject to the terms and conditions set forth in the Settlement.

Moreover, any order granting preliminary or final approval of the Settlement shall constitute a judicial order within the meaning of FERPA, see 34 C.F.R. § 99.31(a)(9)(i), and the Settlement and the Court’s order shall constitute specific notice of Cornell’s intention to comply with that order, see 34 C.F.R. § 99.31(a)(9)(ii).

18. Following the entry of the Preliminary Approval Order, the Settlement Administrator shall send the Short Form Notice substantially in the form attached hereto as Exhibit C via email to persons listed on the Class List. If an email address is not available for a Potential Settlement Class Member, the Short Form Notice will be sent to the Potential Settlement Class Member's last known mailing address via U.S. mail. 19. The Short Form Notice shall advise the Potential Settlement Class Members of their rights under the Settlement, including the right to be excluded from and/or object to the Settlement or its terms. anticipating and answering Settlement related questions from prospective class members; (v) contact information for the Settlement Administrator, including a Toll Free number, and (iv) any other materials agreed upon by the Parties and/or required by the Court.

21. No later than fifteen (15) days after the entry of the Preliminary Approval Order and until the date the Final Judgment is entered, Cornell will provide a link to the Settlement Website at <https://www.Cornell.edu>. No later than thirty (30) days after the entry of the Preliminary Approval Order, Cornell will publish the Short Form Notice as an advertisement once in the Cornell Chronicle, or a publication with comparable reach.

Any Potential Settlement Class Member who properly elects to be excluded, in compliance with the requirements set forth in Paragraphs 23–24, shall not: (a) be bound by any orders of the Court or the Final Judgment; (b) be entitled to a Settlement Benefit; (c) gain any rights by virtue of the Settlement; or (d) be permitted to object to any aspect of the Settlement.

26. A request to be excluded from the Settlement Class must be personal. Any particular Potential Settlement Class Member may not purport to opt other Potential Settlement Class Members out of the Settlement Class on a class, subclass, or other representative basis.

27. For the avoidance of doubt, a Settlement Class Member's election to donate the Settlement Benefit to Cornell's Student Access Fund per Paragraph 7 does not constitute a request for exclusion.

28. Cornell has the right to audit the exclusion process for evidence of fraud or error, and the Court will be the final arbiter of an exclusion's validity.

OBJECTIONS BY SETTLEMENT CLASS MEMBERS

35. The Settlement Administrator shall maintain reasonably detailed records of its activities under the Settlement, including all such records as are required by applicable law, in accordance with its normal business practices, which will be made available to Class Counsel and Cornell's Counsel for inspection upon request. (e) award Class Counsel from out of the Settlement Fund such Fee Award and Litigation Expenses as the Court may allow;

(f) award the Settlement Class Representatives from out of the Settlement Fund such Service Awards as the Court may allow; and

(g) reserve jurisdiction over: (i) implementation of the Settlement and any distribution to Settlement Class Members, pursuant to further orders of the Court; (ii) disposition of the Settlement Fund; (iii) the Action, until each and every act agreed to be performed pursuant to the Settlement shall have been performed, pursuant to further orders of the Court; and (iv) the Parties, for the purpose of enforcing and administering the Settlement.

SETTLEMENT CONSIDERATION

39. The Settlement Amount shall be the sum of $3,000,000. Within ten (10) business days after the Court enters the Preliminary Approval Order, Cornell shall deposit into an escrow account established by the Settlement Administrator / Escrow Agent (the “Escrow Account”), the sum of $3,000,000. No person or entity shall be liable to pay any amount pursuant to the Settlement except as set forth in this paragraph.

USE OF SETTLEMENT FUND

40. The Settlement Fund shall be used to pay: (a) any Administrative Expenses incurred in accordance with Paragraph 1(b) above and Paragraph 46 below; (b) any Fee Award and Litigation Expenses granted by the Court; and (c) any Service Awards granted by the Court. The remainder constitutes the Net Settlement Fund, and shall be distributed to Settlement Class Members according to the Settlement.

41. The Settlement Fund shall be deemed to be in the custody of the Court and shall remain subject to the jurisdiction of the Court until such time as the entirety of the Settlement Fund is distributed as provided in Paragraphs 4–8.

42. Up until the Effective Date, the Escrow Account shall be under the control of the Escrow Agent, on behalf of the Settlement Class Representatives, the Settlement Class, and Cornell. The Escrow Agent shall cause the Settlement Fund to be invested exclusively in United States Treasury Bills (or a mutual fund invested solely in such instruments), except that any cash balances up to the amount that is insured by the Federal Deposit Insurance Corporation (“FDIC”) may be deposited in any account that is fully insured by the FDIC. The Escrow Agent shall cause all interest on the Escrow Account to be collected and reinvested. In the event that the yield on United States Treasury Bills is negative, in lieu of purchasing such Treasury Bills, all or any portion of the funds held by the Escrow Agent may be deposited in any account that is fully insured by the FDIC or backed by the full faith and credit of the United States. Additionally, if short-term placement of the funds is necessary, all or any portion of the funds held by the Escrow Agent may be deposited in any account that is fully insured by the FDIC or backed by the full faith and credit of the United States. The Released Cornell Parties shall have no responsibility for, interest in, or liability whatsoever with respect to investment decisions executed by the Escrow Agent. All risks related to the investment of the Settlement Fund shall be borne solely by the Escrow Agent.

43. The Settlement Fund is intended to be a Qualified Settlement Fund within the meaning of Treasury Regulation § 1.468B-1. The Settlement Administrator, as administrator of the Settlement Fund within the meaning of Treasury Regulation § 1.468B-2(k)(3), shall be solely responsible for filing or causing to be filed all informational and other tax returns as may be necessary or appropriate (including, without limitation, the returns described in Treasury Regulation § 1.468B-2(k)) for the Settlement Fund. The Settlement Administrator shall also be responsible for causing payment to be made from the Settlement Fund of any Taxes owed with respect to the Settlement Fund. The Released Cornell Parties shall not have any liability or responsibility for any such Taxes. Upon written request, Cornell will provide to the Settlement Administrator the statement described in Treasury Regulation § 1.468B-3(e). The Settlement Administrator, as administrator of the Settlement Fund within the meaning of Treasury Regulation § 1.468B-2(k)(3), shall timely make such elections as are necessary or advisable to carry out this paragraph, including, as necessary, making a “relation back election,” as described in Treasury

Regulation § 1.468B-1(j), to cause the Qualified Settlement Fund to come into existence at the earliest allowable date, and shall take or cause to be taken all actions as may be necessary or appropriate in connection therewith.

44. All Taxes shall be paid out of the Settlement Fund and shall be timely paid pursuant to the disbursement instructions to be set forth in the Escrow Agreement, and without further order of the Court. Any tax returns prepared for the Settlement Fund (as well as the election set forth therein) shall be consistent with the previous paragraph and in all events shall reflect that all Taxes on the income earned by the Settlement Fund shall be paid out of the Settlement Fund as provided herein. The Released Cornell Parties shall have no responsibility or liability for the acts or omissions of the Settlement Administrator with respect to the payment of Taxes.

45. This Settlement is not a claims-made settlement. As of the Effective Date, all rights of Cornell in or to the Settlement Fund shall be extinguished.

46. Prior to the Effective Date, no disbursements shall be made out of the Settlement Fund except: (a) upon order of the Court; or (b) as provided in the Settlement. Prior to the Effective Date, the Escrow Agent may pay from the Settlement Fund Administrative Expenses actually incurred and paid or payable, which shall not exceed $150,000. If, prior to the Effective Date, Administrative Expenses exceed $150,000, such additional amounts shall be paid only after approval by both Class Counsel and Cornell's Counsel, which shall not be unreasonably withheld. After the Effective Date, the Escrow Agent may pay from the Settlement Fund any additional, unpaid Administrative Expenses only after approval by both Class Counsel and Cornell's Counsel. The Released Cornell Parties are not responsible for, and shall not be liable for, any Administrative Expenses.

47. If the Effective Date does not occur, or if the Settlement is voided, terminated, or cancelled pursuant to the terms of the Settlement, the Settlement Class Representatives and Class Counsel shall have no obligation to repay any of the Administrative Expenses that have been paid or incurred in accordance with Paragraph 1(b). Any amounts remaining in the Settlement Fund after payment of Administrative Expenses incurred in accordance with Paragraph 1(b), including all interest earned on the Settlement Fund net of any Taxes, shall be returned to Cornell. No other person or entity shall have any further claim whatsoever to such amounts.

48. The Net Settlement Fund will be distributed in the manner set forth in Paragraphs 4–8. The manner of distribution of the Net Settlement Fund, as described in Paragraphs 4–8, the treatment of Uncashed Settlement Checks, as described in Paragraph 8, and the identity of the Settlement Administrator, as described in Paragraph 1(aa), are not necessary terms of the Settlement, and it is not a condition of the Settlement that any particular manner of distribution of the Net Settlement Fund be approved by the Court. The Settlement Class Representatives and Class Counsel may not cancel or terminate the Settlement based on the Court’s or any appellate court’s ruling with respect to the manner of distribution of the Net Settlement Fund or any other plan of distribution in this Action. Any order or proceeding relating to the manner of distribution of the Net Settlement Fund or any other plan of distribution in this Action, or any appeal from any such order, shall not operate to terminate or cancel the Settlement.

49. Payment pursuant to the Final Judgment shall be final and conclusive against all Settlement Class Members. All Settlement Class Members who have not opted out of the Settlement Class shall be bound by all terms of the Settlement, including the Final Judgment to be entered in this Action, and will be permanently barred and enjoined from bringing any action against the Released Cornell Parties with respect to any and all of the Released Claims.

50. No person or entity shall have any claim or cause of action against the Settlement Class Representatives, Class Counsel, the Settlement Administrator, or any other agent designated by Class Counsel arising from distributions made substantially in accordance with the Settlement, the manner of distribution of the Net Settlement Fund as approved by the Court, or any order of the Court.

51. The Released Cornell Parties shall have no responsibility for, interest in, or liability whatsoever with respect to distribution of the Net Settlement Fund, the payment or withholding of Taxes, the Escrow Account, the Escrow Agent, the Settlement Administrator, Administrative Expenses, or any losses incurred in connection with the foregoing. No person, including the Settlement Class Representatives, Settlement Class Members, and Class Counsel, shall have any claim of any kind against the Released Cornell Parties with respect to the matters set forth in this paragraph.

AWARDS FOR ATTORNEYS' FEES AND SETTLEMENT CLASS REPRESENTATIVES

52. Settlement Class Representatives may seek, and the Court may award, reasonable case contribution Service Awards to them for their service in the case and to the Settlement Class not to exceed ten thousand dollars ($10,000), which shall come from the Settlement Fund. This shall be in addition to any Settlement Benefit that Settlement Class Representatives may receive as Settlement Class Members. If the Court approves a request for Service Awards, the Settlement Administrator will distribute the Service Awards to the Settlement Class Representatives along with their Settlement Benefit no later than sixty (60) days after the Effective Date.

53. No later than fourteen (14) days prior to the Objection/Exclusion Deadline, Class Counsel will apply to the Court for a Fee Award to Class Counsel to be paid from (and out of) the Settlement Fund and not to exceed one-third of the Settlement Fund. In addition to the Fee Award,

Class Counsel also will apply to the Court for reimbursement of their Litigation Expenses, which may include a request for reimbursement of the Settlement Class Representatives' costs and expenses directly related to their representation of the Settlement Class, to be paid from (and out of) the Settlement Fund.

54. Any Court-approved Fee Award and Litigation Expenses shall be paid to Class Counsel from out of the Settlement Fund after entry of an order by the Court awarding such Fee Award and Litigation Expenses. In the event that there is no Effective Date, or the Settlement is terminated pursuant to the terms of the Settlement, Class Counsel shall repay to Cornell the full amount of the Fee Award and Litigation Expenses paid to Class Counsel from the Settlement Fund, including any accrued interest. In the event that the Fee Award or award of Litigation Expenses is vacated, modified, reversed, or rendered void as the result of any appeal, further proceedings on remand, or successful collateral attack, Class Counsel shall repay to the Settlement Fund the amount of the Fee Award and/or Litigation Expenses reversed, vacated, or modified, including any accrued interest. Class Counsel shall make the appropriate refund or repayment in full no later than twenty-one (21) days after: (a) receiving from Cornell's Counsel notice of the termination of the Settlement; or (b) any order reversing or modifying the Final Judgment, vacating the Final Judgment, or reducing or reversing the Fee Award or Litigation Expenses has become Final.

55. The granting by the Court of any Service Award, Fee Award, or Litigation Expenses is not a necessary term of the Settlement, and it is not a condition of the Settlement that any particular Service Award, Fee Award, or Litigation Expenses be approved by the Court. The Settlement Class Representatives and Class Counsel may not cancel or terminate the Settlement based on this Court's or any appellate court's ruling with respect to any Service Award, Fee Award, or Litigation Expenses. Any order or proceeding relating to any Service Award, Fee Award, or Litigation Expenses, or any appeal from any such order, shall not operate to terminate or cancel the Settlement. However, distribution of all or a portion of the Settlement Fund may be delayed in the event of an appeal concerning any Service Award, Fee Award or Litigation Expenses.

NO ADMISSION OF WRONGDOING

56. Cornell denies any wrongdoing or culpability. Neither the Settlement, nor any document referred to herein, nor any action taken to carry out the Settlement, is, may be construed as, or may be used as an admission by or against Cornell of any fault, wrongdoing, or liability whatsoever.

57. Pursuant to Federal Rule of Evidence 408, entering into or carrying out the Settlement, the exhibits hereto, and any negotiations or proceedings related thereto, shall not in any event be construed as, or deemed to be evidence of, an admission or concession by Cornell, and shall not be offered or received into evidence in any action or proceeding against the Released Cornell Parties in any court or before any administrative agency or other tribunal for any purpose whatsoever, other than to enforce the provisions of the Settlement or the provisions of any related agreement or exhibit hereto.

CONDITIONS OF SETTLEMENT AND EFFECT OF DISAPPROVAL, CANCELLATION, OR TERMINATION

58. Within fourteen (14) days after the occurrence of any of the following events and upon written notice to counsel for all Parties, a Party shall have the right to withdraw from the Settlement and terminate the Settlement Agreement:

- a. If the Court declines to approve the Settlement Agreement as written without material modification or if on appeal the Court's approval is reversed or modified through material modification of the Settlement Agreement;

- b. If the Court materially alters any of the terms of the Settlement Agreement, except that a reduction in the Fee Award, Litigation Expenses, and/or Service Awards shall not be deemed to be a material alteration; or
- c. If the Preliminary Approval Order or the Final Order and Judgment is not entered by the Court without material modification of the Settlement Agreement or is reversed or modified on appeal or otherwise fails for any reason.

59. Any modification of the Settlement Agreement involving the donation procedures shall not constitute a material modification.

60. If the number of members of the Settlement Class who properly execute and timely file a request for exclusion from the Settlement reaches five (5) percent of the Settlement Class, then Cornell, in its sole discretion, may elect to withdraw from the settlement. To withdraw from the Settlement and terminate this Settlement Agreement on the basis set forth above, Cornell must notify Class Counsel in writing within fourteen (14) Days after the Opt-Out List has been served on the Parties. If Cornell exercises this right, Class Counsel shall have at their sole discretion, fourteen (14) days or such longer period as agreed to by the Parties to address the concerns of the Opt-Outs. If through such efforts the total number on the Opt-Out List subsequently becomes and remains fewer than five (5) percent of the Settlement Class, Cornell shall withdraw its election to withdraw from the Settlement and terminate the Settlement Agreement. Election of Settlement Class Members to forgo their Settlement Benefit and instead donate their Settlement Benefit as set forth in Paragraph 7 shall not be grounds for any Party to withdraw from the Settlement.

61. In the event of withdrawal by any Party in accordance with the terms set forth in this Section:

- a. the Settlement Fund shall be refunded to Cornell consistent with the terms of this Settlement Agreement, including Paragraphs 47 and 54;
- b. the Settlement Agreement shall be null and void, shall have no further force and effect with respect to any Party in the Litigation and shall not be offered in evidence or used in any litigation for any purpose, including the existence, certification, or maintenance of any proposed or existing class or the amenability of these or similar claims to class treatment;
- c. this Settlement Agreement and all negotiations, proceedings, documents prepared and statements made in connection herewith are without prejudice to any Party and shall not be deemed or construed to be an admission or confession in any way by any Party of any fact, matter, or proposition of law and shall not be used in any manner for any purpose, and
- d. the Parties to the Litigation shall stand in the same position as if this Settlement Agreement had not been negotiated, made or filed with the Court.

In such event, the Parties jointly will seek to vacate any order entered or action taken in connection with the Settlement.
